Ooh, something fun and different!

Oyamel, home of my grasshopper taco debacle, is holding a Tequila and Mezcal Festival from March 1-14, 2010!

Sample some of the highest quality tequila and mezcal during the free tastings Tuesdays through Thursdays from 4:00-6:00pm during the festival. Three exclusive flights will be offered at $15 and $16 and include The Siembra Azul Flight of Blanco, Reposado, Añejo and the Mezcal Flight featuring the Fidencio Mezcal, Del Maguey San Luis del Rio and Del Maguey la Crema.

The ultimate flight is José's Favorites, featuring Siembra Azul Blanco, Fidencio Mezcal and Del Maguey Tobala.

Oyamel's creative mixologists are also creating tempting tequila and mezcal cocktails ranging from $10 to $12. Try the Oaxacan Fizz, a twist on the Ramos Gin Fizz made with Fidencio Mezcal combined with house made horchata, Jerry Thomas bitters and egg white.

Also available, the Mexican Mai Tai with Siembra Azul Blanco and Añejo tequilas combined with fresh squeezed lime juice, Kahlúa and a touch of mint. Special appearances by Arik Torren of Fidencio Mezcal on Tuesday, March 2nd and David Suro of Siembra Azul Tequila on Thursday, March 4th.
